If the adjective has more than two syllables then use moy and moyha

boghosek moy boghosek an moyha boghosek

To make the comparative in Cornish most adjectives double the last letter and add an a. The superlative is formed by using an in front of the comparative.

bras brassa an brassa glan glanna an glanna

adjectives ending in -g change to -kka; the ending -b changes to -ppa; the ending -dh changes to -ttha

Note the word order

an den bras = the big man

an den brassa = the bigger man

an brassa den = the biggest man

2 Ages than

agesov	agesos	agesso	agessi
ageson	agesowgh	agessa

Ev yw kottha agesov he is older than me

Ev yw kottha ages Jowan he is older than John

3 Avel as

avelov	avelos	avello	avelli
avelon	avelowgh	avella

To compare two things use mar² and avel

Mar wynn avel an ergh as white as snow

Mar deg avelov as beautiful as me

If you wish to use a verb in the second part you must use dell instead of avel

Ev a wra kana mar hweg dell ganav he sings as sweetly as I sing

4 adverbs

It is possible, in Cornish, to use the adjective as an adverb. 'The boy done good' is poor English but 'An maw a wrug da' is good Cornish. However it is also possible to make an adverb by using yn⁵ + an adjective

gwir	true	yn hwir	truly
da	good	yn ta	well
garow	rough	yn harow	roughly
men	strong	yn fen	strongly
menowgh	frequent	yn fenowgh	often
da	good	yn ta	well
sur	sure	yn sur	assuredly
certan	certain	yn certan	certainly

Exercise 4 Oberen 4

You are on holiday. Write a letter, in Cornish, to a friend. You should include the following points. You must start and finish the letter appropriately. (There is no need to translate the names of places)

- You travelled by coach. The first night was spent near London in an hotel.
- The journey took you through France. You spent a night in an hotel. A member of the group, Davydh Angove, fell in the bathroom and hurt his leg badly.
- The journey continued to Florence. Davydh's leg became worse, so he was taken to the hospital in Florence. The weather is very hot.
- Davydh's leg may be broken, he is to be flown home. On Wednesday you will be visiting Venice, you hope to see 'The Bridge of Sighs' and St Mark's Cathedral. You hope also to visit the islands of Burano and Murano.
