

Dyskans Onan Warn Ugens (21)

An Kynsa Dyskans Warn Ugens

The past participle of regular verbs is formed from the stem + ys.

prena	pren-	prenys	bought
skriffa	skrif-	skrifys	written
triga	trig-	trigys	lived
redya	red-	redys	read
degea		deges	closed

verbs ending in -he form their past participle by adding -s berrhe		berrhes	shortened

--------	--	---------	------------------

these past participles are used mostly as adjectives

very common past participles are serrys (serri) angered/cross; gyllys (mos) gone; devedhys (dos) come; pareusys (pareusi) prepared;

an den serrys the cross man serrys yw an den the man is cross

fenester dheges...a closed window deges yw an fenester the window is closed

Exercise 1 Complete the following conversation

You want to go on holiday with your husband/wife. You need to book a room with a double bed for two weeks. Ask the receptionist whether the room has a private bathroom and whether there is a restaurant

Receptionist: Dydh da, a allav vy dha weres?

You: Reply to the greeting and ask if they have a room available

Receptionist: Py lies person ha rag py lies nos, mar pleg?

You: You reply that it is for two people and you wish to stay for a fortnight.

Receptionist: Unn gweli bras po dew weli?

You: Reply that you would prefer a double bed

Receptionist: Eus neppyth arall?

You: Ask if there is a private bathroom and whether the hotel has a restaurant

Receptionist: Yn sur, yma stevell-omwolghi gans pub chambour. Yma boesti pur dha a deyr sterenn dhyn.

* Exercise 2 Read the passage and answer the questions which follow in complete sentences in Cornish

Your friend in Breage has left a message on your answer-machine.

Myttin da dhis! Dy' Sadorn, my a wra mos gans ow modrep dhe Hellys. Ni a vynn gweles tro-eskelli an lu lestri ogas dhe'n dre, dhe Gilros. Nep-prys ymons i ow nija dhe'n mor dhe braktisya sawya tus a'ga skathow terry's. Heb an tro-askell an varners martesen a wra beudhi.

Wosa hemma ni a vynn prenassa y'n dre. Yn Hellys, del yw usyes, nyns yw an park-kerri leun. Yma gwerthji da ogas dhe'n arghantti ha modrep Tryphena a vynn prena kalter nowydh. Gwell yw genev gwerthji dillas! Martesen ni a yll eva koffi warbarth, a yll'ta dos? Yma boesti ogas dhe'n lytherva.

- 1) What day is your friend going to Helston?
- 2) With whom is she going?
- 3) What are they going to see first and where?
- 4) What may sometimes be seen?
- 5) What might happen without them?
- 6) Will the car park in Helston be full?
- 7) What does Aunt Tryphena want to buy?
- 8) What shop does your friend prefer?
- 9) What does she suggest you meet for?
- 10) Where is the café?

Exercise 3

Write about 50 words Ow harr koth (My old car). Include the following words: broken (terrys), cross/angry (serrys), torn (skwerdys), shut (degess), gone (gyllys)