

Dyskans Dew Warn Ugens (22)

An Nessa Dyskans Warn Ugens

Direct object pronouns with gul

Do you remember the possessive adjectives?

ow ³	dha ²	y ²	hy ³
agan	agas	aga ³
ow hi	dha gi	y gi	hy hi
agan ki	agas ki	aga hi
ow fluvonn	dha bluvonn	y bluvonn	hy fluvonn
agan pluvonn	agas pluvonn	aga fluvonn
ow thas	dha das	y das	hy thas
agan tas	agas tas	aga thas

The direct object pronouns with the auxiliary verbs are the same as the possessive pronouns. Y

My a wra dannvon an lyther
I send the letter

My a wra y dhannvon
I send it

My a vynn dyski awgrym
I want to learn maths

My a vynn y dhyski
I want to learn it

My a yll gweles an eglos
I can see the church

My a yll hy gweles
I can see it

This same construction is used with bos res and bos gwell

Res yw dhymm gwertha an karr
I must sell the car

Res yw dhymm y wertha
I must sell it

Res yw dhe Pol redya an lyver
Paul must read the book

Res yw dhe Pol y redya.
Paul must read it

Exercise 1. *With the help of the examples, translate the following into Cornish:
Use the auxiliary verbs*

1) He must learn it.

6) I prefer to send them.

2) He lost her.

7) We prefer to sell it.

3) She lost him.

8) They found us.

4) I have found you.

9) He can find me.

5) We must send him.

10) She can find me.

Negative sentences

Remember you need to conjugate the verb in negative (and interrogative) statements and questions

Ev a yll ow gweres Ny yll ev ow gweres
He can help me He can't help me

My a yll y weles ny allav y weles
I can see it I can't see it

A yll'ta dannvon an lyther? Gwra, my a yll y dhannvon
Na wra, ny allav y dhannvon

Exercise 2. Translate the following into Cornish.

- 1) I can go to the University. 4) Can you read the letter? Yes I can read it.
2) We can not drink the beer. 5) Can I work in the shop. No, I can't work in it.
3) Can they read the letter? No, they can't read it.

* Exercise 3 Complete the conversation

You are in the library to choose some books. The librarian will speak first.

Librarian: Dydh da. A allav dha weres?

You: Reply to the greeting and ask if there are any Harry Potter books for your child.

Librarian: Yma lyvrow Harry Potter war an estyllenn na ryb an daras. Eus neppyth arall?

You: Say yes and ask if they have a book about St Ives.

Librarian: Eus. Ottomma lyver da a-dro dhe Borthia gans Jori Angwynn ragos

You: You ask to take both books

Librarian: Pur dha. Ty a yll aga gwitha teyr seythun. Duw genes!

You: Reply accordingly